Monumental Sports & Entertainment Announces New Partnership with Jet Linx

Five-year agreement makes Jet Linx Washington D.C. the “Official Private Jet Company” of all Monumental properties

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Monumental Sports & Entertainment (MSE) and Jet Linx Washington D.C. announced today that they have reached a five-year agreement to make Jet Linx Washington D.C. the “Official Private Jet Company” of all Monumental properties.

“We are extremely excited about our partnership with Jet Linx,” Patrick Duffy, Senior Vice President, Global Partnerships at MSE, said. “Their unparalleled approach to service and value is very much in line with our goals at Monumental Sports & Entertainment.”

“Jet Linx is honored to be entrusted as the official private jet company of Monumental Sports & Entertainment because of the high travel demand of its teams and ownership group,” said Josh Rosenblatt, Jet Linx Washington D.C. Base President. “We have built the preeminent private jet company in the area by delivering personalized and locally-focused service with all of the benefits of a national company, while Monumental has done a phenomenal job of building its teams and retaining players. Our partnership is a perfect match.”

As part of the agreement, Jet Linx Washington D.C. will advertise its logo on both courtside seatback covers and VIP hospitality access wristbands for Wizards games. The Company will also have elevator door branding and digital branding on the F Street Entrance and Etihad Airways Lounge LED boards at Capital One Arena.

This announcement also comes as Monumental Sports and Entertainment continues a year of dynamic growth, having purchased two Arena Football League teams, the Washington Valor and the Baltimore Brigade; invested in one of the biggest esports franchises, Team Liquid, and purchased an NBA G League team that will start play in the fall of 2018 at the city’s new facility at the St. Elizabeths campus in Ward 8.
