SOAR Magazine, the company’s flagship quarterly publication, was recognized with a Gold Adrian Award, the highest honor in the annual H SMAI Adrian Awards competition, for a second straight year. The magazine will celebrate its 19th edition in Winter 2019, with 2,134 pages so far in its archives brimming with company history, industry intelligence, private aviation expertise and inspirational travel and lifestyle content. “To look at what our lean internal marketing team, bolstered by our company experts and network of partners, clients and travel enthusiasts, has built through SOAR is truly exciting,” noted Jordan Maddex-Kopp, Vice President of Marketing and Strategic Partnerships for Jet Linx. “Through effective visual storytelling, each issue of SOAR takes our clients and prospects deep into a world of luxury and safety only private aviation can unlock.
